

Richard J. Lombardo

September 30, 1960 - April 23, 2017

Richard J. Lombardo, 56 of Union Township, New Jersey passed away on April 23, 2017, at Overlook Hospital.

Born September 30, 1960 in Eltingville, he was the son of Dorothy and the late Vincent Lombardo. Richard resided in Eltingville for 43 years before moving to Union Township with his wife Janice 13 years ago.

Richard attended Tottenville High School, the College of Staten Island, and went on to become a graduate of the Recording Workshop, a certificate program in Audio Engineering located in Chillicothe, Ohio.

He worked for Verizon as a Media Technician.

Richard was a devoted husband and father. His greatest happiness was his family. He was a loving, caring and giving man. He was a selfless person who personified love in every way. His caring heart, great sense of humor and his calm "late night DJ voice" will be missed greatly. He was also a music enthusiast and talented musician, known as "The Music Maven" to his friends. Richard was an avid NY Yankee's fan and NY Giant's fan.

He is survived by his loving wife of 20 years Janice, his children Julia and Paul, his mother Dorothy, his siblings Georganne Sassano (John), Vincent Lombardo Jr. (Loretta), Jeffrey Lombardo, Claudia Chesnulovitch (Greg). He is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews and friends.

A Funeral service will be at 10:00 on Saturday at The John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc. located at 28 Eltingville Blvd Staten Island, New York. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Friday, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ I'm in shock hearing the news of Richs passing... He was my Verizon guru training me back in the day Springfield garage ... A true professional offering needed guidance in being a proud tradesman while being able to goof on all the crazy customers in all his funny characters and voices... Laughing to Howard Stern and Opie n Anthony- His laughter was contagious....I will miss you my friend- Rest Easy

“ Yesterday I said goodbye to my friend Richard Lombardo. All of the memories going back to childhood are filling my head and consuming my heart. I honestly could not pick one memory with Rich that was more significant than the other because every moment no matter how small, was important to me and my family. I am truly grateful to be part of the Lombardo extended family. I used to feel like the little sister who wanted to hang out with her cool older brother. As we grew up, the age difference did not seem as wide and we became closer as friends. All weekend long I have been hearing Bruce Springsteen and Tom Petty. Thinking of Rich and the concerts we went to, the music we listened to and, the Triumphs and Tragedies of our lives . I will keep Rich's memory alive and pray for the Lombardo family always. I love you all.

“ Words cannot express how sorry I am to hear of Rich's passing. He was one of my lifelong friends who I will never forget. He was a big part of my life and the memories I have I could go on and on.....He taught me how to drive and took me for my road test-I passed thanks to him...My first Yankee game ever for my 16th birthday Rich was right there with us. The many New Years Eve parties, playing guitar the memories are endless. Rest in Peace my dear friend. ImmieK
