

Richard J. Nasta

February 25, 1953 - July 24, 2025

Richard J. Nasta, 72, cherished father and grandfather, passed away peacefully on July 24, 2025.

He was born in Brooklyn, NY to the late Gaspar and Mary Nasta. In 1980, he settled in Staten Island NY, where he raised his family.

Richard is survived by his beloved daughters: Lisamarie Nasta-Cuadrado and her husband David and Kristen Nasta. He is also survived by his loving grandchildren: Patrick Newton, Alyssa Newton, Angelina Cuadrado and Michael Cuadrado.

He is survived by his brother Salvatore Nasta and his sister Jennifer Nasta and her fiance John. He is predeceased by his sister Carmel Messina and his brother Vincent Nasta. He is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, who he loved dearly.

Richard's greatest joy in life was spending time with his family. He loved watching NY Yankees games, making rice balls and zeppoles, and indulging in his favorite coffee and desserts. He had an unwavering devotion to the Blessed Mother, Padre Pio and St. Michael. He will be remembered for his sense of humor and his strength, he will be deeply missed and never forgotten. He will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

A visitation for family and friends will be held from 3:00 - 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 27, 2025, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

Tribute Wall

“ We will miss our dear childhood friend and sadden to know he is no longer just a phone call away. With so many Tompkins Place memories, although long ago, our friendship has never faded, even though we had physically gone our separate ways in adulthood. Richie will always be with us in spirit, in our minds and in our hearts. The suffering is over. Rest in peace old friend.

With a heavy heart,
