“ I am heartbroken over Rob's passing. I had the pleasure of knowing Rob for the past few years and he was always kind, caring, and charismatic. He was very proud of his grown kids and enjoyed talking about them.

He was devoted to Carolyn and Anthony and loved them with all his heart. He was confronted with too many life challenges that would surely wreak havoc on any human. He wanted nothing but peace, grace, comfort, and calm for him and his family. They all deserved that.

He was very proud of his craftsmanship and building skills and longed for a life where he could work and take care of his family. When he was stressed out, he would relax by working and doing projects around the house.

He was gracious and appreciative in his conversations and communications.

I am grateful that I was able to spend some time with him and Carolyn a few months ago. However, I regret that I had not spoken with him in the past 6 weeks. I will miss his him greatly,

My deepest condolences to his family in Staten Island, to Carolyn, and Anthony.
