“ There truly are very few people that we meet in our lives which have a great impact and knowing Bobby and all of his family and the Consolmagno families have had that effect on me. Over twenty years have gone by since I became acquainted with Bobby through his brother-in-law Tommy and son-in-law Paulie. Throughout these years we have all seen each other through some of the most difficult times and thankfully good times as well. Working with Tommy and Paulie allowed me to spend time with Bobby since he came into the office a couple of days a week. Seeing him always brought a smile to my face. He had such a positive outlook and his love for his family was infectious. He saw the good in everyone and never missed an opportunity to say a kind word, tell a joke or just listen when he knew someone needed to vent. Many times he and I would talk about my son who has Autisim and he would always encourage me to stay positive and not worry about what my son Evan didn't know rather what he did know and that was my love for him. Recently I took my son to work with me and Bobby was there that day. He took time out of his work schedule to strike up a conversation with Evan which could be hard a times especially when Evan is in an unfamiliar surrounding. When Bobby left the office my son turned to me and said, "that man was nice Mommy". That sums up Bobby, just a really nice man who loved his family, appreciated his life and looked at everyone with a kind heart. So although I had a good cry when I heard the news of my very good friends' passing I will try my best to honor his memory with the very same empathy and optimism he possessed. May the angels surround you Bobby and may your soul live on in all our hearts forever.

“ Bobby has left us on his terms. He was determined to not let his family and friends see him suffer or be inconvenienced at all. We lost a close friend however we have tons of happy memories to overcome our sadness. Life with the Arraji & Consolmagno families has always been special for us. Whether we were just having dinner together, playing cards or games our time spent together was priceless. Bobby and Flo always in the middle of the fun. Over 25 years of wonderful memories don't just disappear they will live on forever.

Bobby and Flo's hospitality always went above and beyond anyone's expectations, from their annual Christmas party, to a summertime cookouts, random pot luck dinners, to days and nights partying at the marina. When you got that invite you knew you were going to have a great time and be well fed. When you arrived you were always greeted with smiles and warm hugs. You were always told how glad they were that you came.

We have shared many milestones, too many to mention, both happy and sad; but either way being together always makes it better.

Bobby leaving us has broken all of our hearts. Bobby was a Great Husband, Father, Papa, Friend and whatever title he held in relation to you I know he was great. We were blessed to have had him in our lives, although it was cut short, our faith reminds us that there will be a time when we will all be together again. Until then, here on earth we will all mourn your loss, but are comforted in knowing that you are healed and are now resting comfortably in Heaven.

Bobby, Our Forever Friend, we love you and miss you.

Love Always,
