

Robert Dickey

June 2, 1962 - October 27, 2025

Robert T. Dickey Jr. June 2, 1962 - October 27, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Robert T. Dickey Jr., affectionately known as "Bob". who peacefully left us on October 27, 2025. Bob was 63 years old.

Born on June 2, 1962, in New Brunswick, New Jersey, Bob moved to Staten Island in the early 1960s, where he would build his life and create lasting memories. He was a proud graduate of the Staten Island school system, attending P.S. 8, I.S. 24, and Tottenville High School.

Bob built a career working on Wall Street for several prestigious brokerage companies, including Goldman Sachs and Chase Bank. He later transitioned to real estate, where he worked for Foxtons before becoming an independent contractor, bringing his expertise and dedication to helping others find their perfect homes.

Above all, Bob was a devoted family man. He was the loving husband of Lisa. Bob married Lisa on October 21, 1989 and built a lifetime of memories. Bob was the proud father of two children, Kayla and Bobby, whose accomplishments brought him immense joy and pride. Bob is also survived by his siblings: his sister Nancy, Thomas and Marty, who will forever cherish the memories they shared. He also cherished the relationship he had with his son in law Brandon Nickel. Bob also loved Louise "Grandma" Natalini's Sunday dinner of Italian cuisine and has been a lifelong friend to Albino Natalini "Grandpa". His love of food and eating in general earned him the loving nickname "The Hangry Elf".

Bob was a passionate sports fan, cheering enthusiastically for his beloved New York Yankees and New York Jets. His love for photography was evident in the countless photos he took of his son's baseball and soccer teams, capturing precious moments that families will treasure forever. He was an avid learner who enjoyed watching health-focused YouTube videos and staying current with political developments. A proud Republican, Bob was particularly supportive of President Trump and remained engaged in political discourse throughout his life.

Bob's legacy lives on through the love he shared, the photographs he captured, and the pride he took in his family's achievements. His warm spirit, dedication to his loved ones, and enthusiasm for life will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:00 AM on Thursday at St Patricks Church. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Wednesday, October 29, 2025, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ Lisa, Bob and I, along with a tight group of friends from Great Kills, I.S. 24, etc. go back a long way. Also was in elementary school every grade with Thomas, Bob's brother. I am so sad to learn of Bob's passing and send my love and prayers to all. I have so many memories of us back then. Bob's quiet manner was punctuated by Lisa's constant enthusiasm for their family, and they raised two wonderful children. I am certain that the legacy of love and support that they created will continue to support their families for years to come.

“ My brother-in-law Bob was such a fun addition to our Natalini family. Lisa and Bob dated in high school.. and I grew up looking up to Bob as my big brother... which meant so much to me, being that I did not have any brothers.

Throughout the years, Bob always made it a point to get all my kids a special Christmas gift.. and always thought of everyone else, before himself. We have had many laughs and great times throughout the years. We have had many family gatherings and Sunday dinners at the Natalini household, which Bob was very fond of. I know that Lisa, Kayla and Bobby, as well as the rest of the family, will cherish these memories forever!!

Bob will surely be missed, but his memories live on in all of our hearts! RIP 💔
