“ I will miss my brother very much. He was a wonderful brother. I have so many happy memories. We had an amazing childhood and loving parents. I still can remember how he held my hand on our walk to school. Rest in peace my dear brother and we will meet again.

“ There are so many happy memories of our family gatherings. Many from 67 1st Place. One of my earliest memories was a summer day when we all still lived in Brooklyn. Uncle Bobby & Aunt Virginia gave my mom a break and took me to the beach with Carol, Loretta, and Linda. I'm pretty sure Roy hadn't joined the clan yet. I still remember the big green 59 Impala pulling up in front of our apartment. (Later Aunt Lucille would have this car and dub it the green hornet.) It's a very happy memory that I cherish almost 60-years later. I attribute my love of the beach to days like this. I can still hear Uncle Bobby's laugh. I wish distance hadn't kept us so far apart.

Uncle Bobby had the most amazing laugh. I cherish many memories and hold them close to my heart May he rest in peace.

“ Through my parents, I met the Ferrentino’s in the 70’s. I feel blessed to have so many wonderful childhood memories with Bob, Virginia and Roy. Army Navy games at Westpoint & pool parties at the Doyle’s, to name a few. Bob was always so warm and happy to see you! Please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. I am sorry I cannot be there in person to celebrate your father with you. Karen McCann
