

Robert J. Juliano

February 20, 1937 - April 15, 2024

Robert Juliano, born on February 20, 1937, in the Bronx, New York, passed away on April 15th, 2024, at the age of 87, in Staten Island, New York. He was surrounded by his loving family. Robert, affectionately known to many as Bob, lived a life rich in love, dedication, and service.

Born to John and Margaret Juliano, Bob grew up in the Bronx, where he forged cherished memories with his sisters, Joan Summers and Diane Foley. He developed a lifelong passion for sports, particularly cheering for the New York Yankees, Giants, Knicks and Rangers. His early experiences at the ballpark with his father ignited an enthusiasm for sports that would endure throughout his lifetime.

Bob proudly served his country in the United States Army during the Vietnam War and had a distinguished career spanning four decades at ITT (International Telephone and Telegraph). Starting humbly as a messenger, Bob's dedication and work ethic propelled him through the ranks to eventually become an esteemed executive in Compensation and Benefits.

Bob found joy in the simple pleasures of life. He was an avid reader, enjoyed doing crossword puzzles and loved travel which he did extensively as part of his job.

Bob's greatest source of pride and happiness, however, was his beloved family. He shared over five decades of love and companionship with his devoted wife, Grace Juliano (nee Lippolis). He was a dedicated father to his children, Lisa Quadara, Dina Bennett, and Robert Juliano II and a loving father-in-law to Frank and Scott. His greatest joy came from watching his grandchildren, Ariana, Michael, and Peter, grow and thrive, their presence bringing him immeasurable joy.

As we bid farewell to Robert Juliano, we celebrate a life well-lived - defined by love, loyalty, and unwavering dedication. A memorial service to celebrate Robert Juliano's life will be held on Thursday, April 18 from 4-9 pm at John Vincent Scalia Funeral Home at 28 Eltingville Boulevard, Staten Island, NY 10312. A Funeral Mass will be held on Friday, April 19 at 11:00 am at Holy Child Church at 4747 Amboy Road, Staten Island, NY 10312.
