

Robert Gerard Moore

November 10, 1973 - February 6, 2021

It is with deep sadness but great love that the family of Robert Gerard Moore, announces his death on February 6, 2021, after a sudden illness. Rob will forever be remembered by his mother and best friend, Ann Marie Moore; his siblings Kelly, Patrice (Don) and Ryan and his nephews Kyle, Dylan, Kevin, Johnny and Danny. Rob was predeceased by his father Richard and his sister Karen. Rob will also be fondly remembered by his aunts, uncles, numerous cousins and all his friends and housemates from A Very Special Place.

Rob was a music lover and collected music in all forms. His favorites were The Doors, The Beatles and of course Billy Joel. Rob liked painting, bowling, doing puzzles and making scrap books. He always had at least two with him. Rob had a great sense of humor. He loved to tease and be teased and always got the joke, because he knew that he was deeply loved.

“ I will truly miss you my Rob! You are indeed one of the most caring, nurturing and protective people I’ve ever encountered. All I continue to hear in my head are your apologies to ease my heart. You always knew what to say to make my heart smile. If any knew my schedule and when I should have been at Jefferson it was you and if I was late, you reminded me! May you rest in perfect peace as one of Jefferson’s angels. Please protect the ones who went before you on our behalf! I love you my Rob and you will forever hold a special place in my heart!!

“ Hey Rob (aka "Banana"), I will truly miss our chats about music. I often thought that you were the only person I knew who appreciated good music as much as I do (ok, maybe we disagreed on "The Doors" but that's fine). You were always the first to come to mind when I pondered what to do with my CD collection, should I have to give it to someone. I can't think of anyone who would enjoy, appreciate and benefit from it more. I will also miss your sense of humor. You definitely obtained that "Murphy" gene of the sharp wit. All it ever took was a certain smile on your face to tell that you "got it" AND you gave it back. I love you and will truly miss you. Rest in peace and enjoy the best music you've ever heard!
