“ I was lucky enough to be blessed with having Bobby as my uncle. He always had a smile on his face that seemed to be contagious! After losing my father who was Bobbys brother he stepped up to the plate and always checked in to make sure my mother, sister and I were safe and happy. Over the years Bobby became my hearing aid patient and he was and always will be my favorite patient. Not always as obedient as I would have liked :) but always the best company and the one I looked forward to seeing the most. I will miss him cheering me on and supporting me in everything I do in life but will always hold him close my heart. ❤️ Hope you are resting easy with your brothers and finally at peace 🍷 I LOVE YOU ALWAYS

“ Bob O was a dear friend and a helping hand to me since 1993. He was always available for discussion. He and Eileen even tried to save my marriage. His contribution to the souls in recovery will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace my friend Bob O.
