“ My condolences to Bob's extended family. I called Bob “RRS”. He was the voice of reason when a broker like me was having a serious problem with one of his underlings. Whilst initially sad to hear of his passing, I'm now in full smile mode remembering what a genuinely nice person he was. RRS was unfailingly generous with whom he knew, what he knew, and the resources he had access to. He wanted you to do well more than anything else because he was a real team player.

“ Dear Maryann, Robert, Christine, Fausto and Joseph all of our thoughts and prayers for our Dear Bob who was more than a neighbor for over 43 years.
Bob was part of our family; a big brother and a loving uncle. We admired Bob for so many good qualities and his patience was that of a saint he would always answer a little boy's questions... “ why Bob”.
He was amazing, always happy and helpful to all. We enjoyed conversations from the world of politics, the economy and New York baseball and football past and present.
We were so lucky to have Bob as our neighbor. We felt like we lived in the best neighborhood in the world. We will truly miss him.
Thank you Bob we love you.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Bob. My memories of Bob go back to 1985 in Manhattan. Such a warm, big-hearted man who always made time for me in my early career. So many laughs, lunches and stories. A wonderful man who always lit up the room he was in. Such a large personality in a little package. It is great that we all have so many loving memories to hold on to. God Bless you Bob and everyone who knew you.

“ I want to extend my deepest condolences to the family of Robert R Savio. Robert was a wonderful boss and a good friend. I will miss the many conversations we use to have during our frequent lunches with Bob “M” and Larry “J”. We spoke about everything 3 retired people could think of. We had many laughs together. I will never forget Robert R Savio. He will always be my friend.

“ Bob was a wonderful neighbor; he always had a warm smile and a friendly wave. Sometimes we talk about Giant football or local events. His winning personality will be missed by both of us.

“ Bob, my best friend for over 65 years. You will be sorely missed by all who knew you. Your smile was infectious and lit up a room. I will miss our many talks about world events, family, friends and mainly about old-school baseball and football (NY style). I'll remember the 3-olive martinis, BBQ hot dogs, DisneyWorld and our many nights out with the two beautiful women who chose to spend their lives with us. Not bad for two Italian guys that hung out on 12th Avenue and 69th Street. Till we meet again, my friend, keep smiling. Love you.
