“ I remember the places you took me, fishing in Prospect Park, the Wonder Wheel at Coney Island on the swinging car that I thought was going to fly off. Camping at Bear Mountain with my cousins and your brothers in law. Monster Trucks (a first ever) in Madison Square Garden with your boys. Gerard and I would come visit you on 11th street and play with Roger and Eric when they were toddlers. I have such great memories and felt the love you gave. I will forever remember it all. Thanks for being a great uncle. I love you and I know you loved me. I will miss you but you forever live in my memories.

“ Dear Kathy, Eric, Roger & Stephen
Im so very sorry. My heart shares your pain.
Just a year ago you both came to Nick's memorial service. He was a wonderful father & neighbor. May God give you all the strength
& courage you need.
Love, Ginger
