“ My heartfelt condolences to Paula and the rest of Ronny's family on their loss. It is of course first and foremost their loss, but not only theirs. Many people mourn Ronny's passing. I was privileged to have Ronny as a colleague in the early years of the NYC Trade Waste Commission. We had a clear mission to get organized crime out of the City's carting industry and needed to have a clear and immediate impact; to do that, we needed smart, dedicated people who could get things done. Ronny was all that, and more. His work ethic was legendary; so was his sense of humor. Others can speak, and I'm sure they will, eloquently, of Ronny's tireless and selfless efforts in the aftermath of September 11th. He was a man of integrity and a big-hearted soul who was taken from us too soon and will be sorely missed. -- Edward Ferguson
