“ The Draghi family introduced me to Rosa and Aldo and their children. I am the red head standing behind Paul in the picture. I use to see Rosa in the neighborhood all the time, headed to church or to the supermarket. She was such a sweet and loving person. I remember her with fondness and I am sorry for your loss of your mother.

“ Rosa touched the lives of so many children during her many years teaching Sunday School. She was truly a faithful woman of God. We loved her dearly and we will miss her. Until we meet again. We pray that God may comfort the Velati family and fill them with His peace.
