

Rose Abbruscato

February 13, 1933 - November 21, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Rose Abbruscato on November 21, 2024, a beloved mother of Lisa Pinto (Vincent), grandmother of Danielle (Chris) and Mauro (Cathy) and great-grandmother of Christopher, Gabriella, Gianna, and Antonio.

Rose was 91, born on February 13, 1933 in Brooklyn, NY. A successful businesswoman with a distinguished career in NYC. Rose worked until the age of 86, retiring to dedicate the remainder of her life to her grandkids and great-grandkids.

Rose was a strong, independent woman who always put her family first, with a generous heart and known to be a grandmother to all. She was the most selfless person anyone could ever know, there will never be another like Rose.

Rose was a huge part of our lives and we will miss her every single day. As they say, we don't remember the days, we remember the moments, those moments will live in our hearts forever.

Oh, Danielle! I am so very sorry! Please extend my deepest condolences to your mom and brother, especially; for you my Angel, I send hugs and tears- there is no one in your life like a grandma! And she must have lived an extraordinary life with you all especially! May every thought of her and every memory be a blessing to your lives! 🙏
