

Rose A. McKibbin

June 9, 1941 - February 13, 2024

Rose A. McKibbin, 82 of Oakwood, passed away on Tuesday, February 13, 2024, at Eger Health Care Center.

Born Monday, June 9, 1941 in Brooklyn, New York, she was the daughter of the late Salvatore Principato and Frances Sciortino. She was the beloved wife of Jerry.

Above all, she loved her family dearly. They were her number one love and priority. Rose heart and door were always open to anyone who wanted a visit, advise or a hug.

She showed her love through cooking. Rose Worked for 25 years at PS 37 as the head cook in the kitchen. She loved each and every one of the students as her own. She loved to cook for her family and the holidays. She was known for putting together beautiful meals together, even quickly for larger surprise visits with family and friends.

She was a devout Catholic who attended Mass every week until she was recently sick. Rose was a simple woman who enjoyed a glass of wine each night with her dinner, trips to Atlantic City, watching game shows, reading books to pass time in the afternoon, reading the newspaper every day and she never missed an episode of ❖❖ Judge Judy❖❖

Rose was the beloved wife of 34 years to her late husband Jerry who passed away in March of 2000. She was a loving mother to her three children Mary-Frances Bulone (Chris), Brendon and Joseph (Laura). She was an adored grandmother to her six grandchildren Christopher Bulone (Ashley), Vincent Bulone (Heather), Kelly McKibbin (Robert), Nicole Lombardi (Vincent), Brian McKibbin, Evan McKibbin and great grandmother DJ, William and Vincent. As well as a dear friend to many.

“ You will be missed by so many. I will always remember you and the joy and laughter you brought. You were like a second mom to me in junior high and high school and always welcomed me into your home as family. May God's perpetual light shine upon you.

“ We weren't blood but we were family. It was a blessing to live next door to such a great person for so many years. There were so many laughs shared on those front steps, and so many happy and sad moments that we supported each other through along the way.

After getting married, moving out and having kids of my own, we still got to see Rose regularly with each trip back to my parents. Every trip back just brought more good times on those front steps...only now they were shared with another generation of kids who were blessed to know her.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Rose and her whole family. We will never forget her and will cherish the joy that she brought to all of our lives.

*With much love,
Rob, Adora, Matthew, Cade and Sawyer*

“ Rosie you always were there with a quick wit and funny jokes you love to play. Especially when we were younger. You grew as I understand a beautiful family that you made with Jerry whom we lovingly called Robert Redford from the first time you met him at Manhattan Center. Which we both went to in NYC . I am sure you are looking down and saying I have not heard from you where have you been. Not close enough but you will always be a strong reminder of one who wanted to make everyone laugh. And You Did. RIP. Cousin Nancy From Naples Florida
