“ I remember a time about three years ago when we visited Aunt Rose with Sally, Dana, Raymond and Robert, Emily, Neil and, my husband, Manny. We were in the cafeteria having lunch together. A trio of retired gentlemen were entertaining everyone by playing music from the 40s, 50s and 60s. I looked across the table at Aunt Rose and the look on her face was one of pure pleasure as she hummed and identified the music she heard. It became clear to me that each song brought her to a special time in her life and she was content. We love you and will keep our beautiful memories of your love and kindness to all forever. Rest in peace, Aunt Rose. Bless you, Manny and Marie Greco
