You were such a wonderful Aunt and beautiful person inside and out. Thank you for being so good to me growing up. Rest in peace with Uncle John, Daddy, Grandma, and Grandpa. Love you.

“ My late wife, Susan, and I first met Rosemarie and John Reilly during the summer of 1982. As the years went on, they became part of our group of "country friends". I remember well the look that Rosemarie would give me when I said something that pushed the envelope on correctness; she would sort of roll her eyes and give me this kind of look which I always found to be "interesting".

I am very sorry to learn of Rosemarie's passing. I hope the family will be comforted by what I am sure are wonderful memories of this lovely woman.

My condolences to all family members. My regret is that my personal and business schedule preclude me from attending the visitation and the funeral service. Please accept my apologies. May her soul rest in eternal peace.

*Respectfully,
Allan F. Hyatt*
