“ Mom, You were the best mom anyone could ask for. Unconventional (for sure!) fun loving, caring, and one of the most generous people I will ever know. Nothing made you happier than giving to others. I know how important your family was to you especially your grandchildren and the little dog Winston that lives downstairs you called your "therapy dog". When I reflect back on the times we shared I'm amazed at how much we did together; trips to Italy and Disney, all the plays we saw in the city, countless spa trips for massages and facials, all of our shopping trips and just running errands together. I already miss you so much but I know the past few years were hard on you. Losing dad and then countless recurrences of cancer took its toll on your body and your spirit. Yet, you faced every challenge and every obstacle head on just like a true warrior does. Life will never be the same without you but I am grateful your suffering is over. Rest in peace my Peeps, you are loved and cherished every day.

Love,
Laura, Mike and Winston the therapy dog.

“ My dearest Mother, Mom, Ma, Peeps, I am missing you already. I will forever cherish the moments we've had good or bad. You were the most generous, caring and loving woman to walk the face of this earth! You have done so much for me in my life time, and I will ALWAYS be thankful and grateful for that. Thank you for being the most wonderful grandmother to my kids. Especially JR! I know you will be watching over us as we will be looking up to you. I know when people met you they loved you instantly.
I hope you made it to heaven and you are with dad and I'm sure dad is making you the best meal so far. You were never a burden to me.
I'm so so glad I had the chance to take care of you and hold you and tell you how I felt until you crossed over to the other side. Rest peacefully mom, I will continue to talk to you like I do with dad.
With all my love,
Your daughter

“ She was not only my sister, but my friend. We shared tears, laughs and many hugs. So generous of a women be it with family or friends.
Her blue, green eyes and whatever colored hair she had at the time she always looked like a million. Beautiful that was my sis.
I am proud and honored to have shared so much with her. Love you Roe.
