“ Ruth was an easy to like person that lived in Great Kills for several years. She had a big, kind heart and all her neighbors liked her. Sadly, we all must leave this world in the end and saying goodbye to your mother is possibly the hardest thing one will ever have to face in life. My condolences to her son, Louis and his two boys and daughter at this very painful time. I wish the family peace and solace in knowing Ruth was a kind and gentle soul and is now at eternal rest with her dear husband John in Heaven.

“ Ruth was a resident in Golden-Gate Rehab for about one year. She was a warm and friendly lady and all the staff and residents liked her and enjoyed talking with her daily. She was a very good patient and made several friends here. They enjoyed talking to her about cooking and preparing big Italian holiday meals in their younger years. She is survived by her son Louis and three grandchildren. May she now rest in peace.
