

Salvatore Joseph Fiore

October 9, 1949 - March 18, 2023

Salvatore Joseph Fiore, 73, of Monroe Township, NJ, beloved son to his late parents, Salvatore Paul and Concetta Louise Fiore, Father, Grandfather, Brother, and Uncle passed away suddenly in his home March 18, 2023.

Born on October 9th, 1949 in Brooklyn, NY, He was a retired Air Force Veteran and MTA painter who was a lifelong Mets, Jets and Islanders fan. He always loved a good Super Bowl Sunday with his family and was always found cooking something ◆deelicious!◆ in the kitchen. He had an avid passion for music and cinema. If there was a guitar in the room, he was playing it. He spent his last days being in love with his new puppy, Tess that he absolutely adored.

Salvatore was predeceased by his parents Salvatore and Concetta Fiore. Salvatore is survived by his two children, Christopher (Kim) Fiore and Jessica (Patrick) Fiore, grandson, Kayden Paul Fennell, three sisters Pauline DiCarlo, Phyllis (Gerard) Schaefer, and Catherine Fiore. His loving nieces & nephews, Kimberly, Suzanne, Nicholas, Daniel, Matthew, William, and Andrew.

A private memorial will be held for immediate family, on 4/2/23, to scatter his ashes, and celebrate his memory afterwards at dinner.

He loved nothing more than his two children and we will forever miss you,

Dad.

“ Dad, what will I ever do without you? You were my best friend. We did so much together. You shaped me into the man I am today. You taught me how to love. How to be kind, compassionate, empathetic.. you were the most generous man I've ever known. And not just with material things. You gave your heart.. all of it. I will be forever broken. You left us way too soon. I love you forever.

Love, “Junior”

I would like To share a memory!

One time we were playing corn hole at aunt Phyllis house and Sal yelled out to me wow some “throw” and I thought he was going to tell me it was good! Little did I no he cracked up laughing and said you throw like a girl! And couldn’t stop laughing! He also made me laugh with his laugh. You will always missed and loved rest in peace with all your loved ones for infinity  with God. 🙏
