

Salvatore Sacco

March 19, 1925 - October 13, 2017

Salvatore "Chubby" Sacco, 92, passed away on October 13, 2017 surrounded by his loving family. He was born in the Red Hook section of Brooklyn to the late Joseph and Angelina Sacco.

Known to his family and friends as "Chubby", he was a devoted father, grandfather and great grandfather. As a young man, he worked as a salesman for his brother's business, Frank's Department Store in Red Hook Brooklyn for 60 years. His favorite pastime was taking trips to Atlantic City and playing cards with his family, poker being his favorite. He also loved following the NY Mets and watching Turner Classic Movies.

Chubby was predeceased by his beloved wife, Nancy, who passed away in 2002. He is survived by his children, Joseph Sacco and his wife Susan, and Angela Cordaro and her husband, Joseph; his grandchildren, Salvatore, Joseph and Nicholas; and his great grandson, Joey.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday at our Lady Star of the Sea Church, located at 5411 Amboy Road, Staten Island. Entombment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery.

The family will receive friends on Sunday from 7-9 p.m., and Monday from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville

Bld. Staten Island.

“ I am so sad to hear about Chubby. I have so many happy memories of shopping in Frank's Department Store with my mom when we were kids and then when I grew up, I bought baby things for my own children there and house dresses as Christmas gifts every single year for my mom and my aunt. Once I was in Frank's and a lady came in with an old longline bra that she wanted them to order for her but it had been washed so many times that you could not read the style number. When I got home and took the things out that I had purchased, lo and behold, that lady's bra was in my bag! I immediately called the store and Chubby answered;, he knew exactly why I was calling and asked me to please bring the bra back as soon as I could. God bless your soul, Chubby!
