

Salvatore Tamburo, Jr.

November 24, 1936 - May 7, 2020

Salvatore Tamburo, Jr., 83 of Eltingville, passed away on Thursday, May 7, 2020, at Staten Island University Hospital South.

Born Tuesday, November 24, 1936 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Salvatore Tamburo and the Pauline Cravatta.

Born and raised in Canarsie, Salvatore spent the first 40 years of his life there, attending East New York Vocational High School. Sal joined the US Army and proudly served his country as a US Army Corporal.

Salvatore moved to Staten Island 43 years ago, eventually marrying and settling in Eltingville with his wife Lorraine.

Salvatore a musician was a member of the Voxpoppers in the 1950's. Performing in many places he performed on the popular Dick Clark Show and had a hit song in 1958 called Wishing For Your Love.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ld0_CEmcwPs&list=RDEM_dZ7MGIEMouf0UTiewccaQ&start_radio=1

Sal had many interests playing the accordion, listening to music, and devoutly watching the New York Mets, but his greatest joy was spending time with his children and grandchildren, especially his daughter Laurie who has been his caregiver for the last two years.

Beloved husband of 38 years of Lorraine who passed away in 2013.

Loving father of Maria Savarese, Joseph Mercurio, and Laurie Tamburo.

Cherished grandfather of Anthony Knox and Kelly Knox and adored great-grandfather of Anthony and Addison Knox and Hailey and Frankie Mammaro.

A twin, Sal is the last surviving sibling of 6 children.

Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

Cemetery Details

Resurrection Cemetery

361 Sharrot Avenue
Staten Island, NY 10309

Previous Events

Service

MAY 14. 12:30 PM (ET)

Resurrection Cemetery
361 Sharrot Avenue
Staten Island, NY 10309

Tribute Wall

“ Salvatore Tamburo, Jr.

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM

“ I knew Sal and his brother growing up in Canarsie in the 50s. One played Sax and the other played the accordion. Like most people growing up then before the internet you lose contact. The VOXPOPPERS

John Settle - June 23, 2021 at 11:25 AM