

Sam G. Nahas, Jr.

January 19, 1976 - February 11, 2024

In memory of Sam G. Nahas, Jr. who fought a courageous battle with cancer, passed away on February 11, 2024.

Beloved son, brother, uncle, cousin, nephew, and friend to many. Sammy was born to Angela (nee Vecchio) And Sam Nahas, Sr. on January 19, 1976 in Brooklyn, NY. In addition to his parents, he is survived by his sister, Serena, brother-in law Anthony Licastro and the love of his life, his niece Giada Licastro.

He graduated from Staten Island Academy and attended the College of Staten Island. He owned a construction business and delicatessen prior to working for Con Edison for 15 years. Sammy's passion for everything Christmas led him to compete on ABC's Great Christmas Light Fights in 2022.

His Christmas displays outside his residence attracted hundreds of fans for many years. Sammy's ability to restore antique moving figures back to their original working state and appearances and to recreate store Christmas displays he so loved as a child was amazing. In the past he won a local award and was noted in the Advance, Time on line, and Brooklyn News.

Sammy truly loved his family, relatives, friends and life! He had an extraordinary sense of humor and was a kind and compassionate man.

The family will receive friends from 2 - 4 and 7- 9 PM on Thursday, February 15, 2024, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday at Our Lady Star of The Sea Church located at 5411 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10312. Arrangements include private cremation.

In leu of flowers please make a donation to your favorite cancer charity.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com

“ Dear Nahas Family, I am writing on behalf our the whole RCPD band family. We are so deeply sorry for the loss of Sammy. He 'grew up' alongside us and was our band brother. There are no words that can capture the feelings of loss and sadness, or provide consolation through this difficult time. Find comfort knowing that Sammy and the Nahas Family showed such tremendous strength and incredible faith throughout the illness. Our prayers for you all will continue. We know Sammy is in good company with those who have gone before us and his kind, gentle and caring spirit will shine on in those who admired and learned from him - especially his favorite, Giada.

With Love from RCPD
