

Sara Ann Sparacio

November 12, 1983 - December 2, 2019

Sara Ann Sparacio, 36 of Staten Island, passed away on Monday, December 2, 2019, at Staten Island University Hospital North.

Born on November 12, 1983, Sara Ann was named after her two proud grandmas - Serafina and Anna. She is survived by her mom Paula, father Carl, younger sister Katie (whom she doted over), dogs Willow and Ellie, cat Oliver and rescue bird Lady Mortimer. Greeting her at the gates is her beloved childhood dog Potato. She will be greatly missed by all of her adoring Aunts, Uncles, friends, cousins, and great cousins Anthony Jr., Gabby, Gianna, and L.J.

Sara Ann earned a degree in psychology from the College of Staten Island. She worked for the College during the previous 10 years- tending to the birds and other animals throughout the department. She had an uncanny connection with birds, gaining the nickname of "Bird Whisperer." In a broader sense- she was a passionate animal lover - all breeds and all varieties - large or small. Sara enjoyed traveling- having visited many US cities- and going on exotic journeys from zip-lining through Costa Rica to backpacking across New Zealand.

Music & Movies were another big part of her life. She was a true trivia buff- able to quickly sing a lyric or quote a famous movie line with ease. This love of movies led to her volunteering and working at various horror-cons, comic-cons, and other conventions nationwide. Together with her sister Katie, they rapidly became part of a larger convention family- gathering many memories and treasured friends along the way. Sara Ann will be greatly loved & missed by all the many lives she touched.
