“ Sonia is now in that big kielbasa stand in the sky,....she loved polish kielbasa and I will always remember as a kid her preparing it for dinner often for her husband,Richard,and their two kids....."Resting In Peace" (1943-2019)

“ I remember Sonia and her husband Richard from the old neighborhood in Huguenot from way back in the late 1970's and early 1980's.I would take the X-19 express bus on the corner to work downtown on Wall Street each day and greet her husband Richie there every morning for years.Sonia would often cook Richard's Polish favorite for dinner...kielbasa ! She also enjoyed going to Atlantic City by bus from time to time,I recall Vin and Marilynn Maiorana would also have their annual Halloween party in their basement and friends and neighbors would always come. There was Amelia Ennis,Tina,Josephine and Tony,Audrey and Jeremiah Clark,Bob and Mary Sprague,John and Elaine DeMaso and others.Some of these neighbors are also now deceased,as are Vin and Marilynn,too.Life is short...I cherish all those old memories of so long ago when life seemed simpler and everyone in the neighborhood were friends and got along so well.I I.May Sonia now rest in peace.
