

Sr. M. Angela Bodnar

September 3, 1929 - January 30, 2017

Sister Mary Angela Bodnar passed away peacefully on January 30th at St. Joseph's Convent, the provincial home of the Daughters of Divine Charity, in Staten Island, NY. She was born on Sept. 3, 1929 in Bridgeport, CT to Bertalan and Elizabeth Bartok Bodnar.

She attended St. Stephen's grammar school where she was enamored with the teaching nuns and entered as a postulant after completing the 7th grade. She completed elementary and high school at St. Joseph's Hill Academy and entered the novitiate on July 2, 1947. She professed her vows on July 4, 1949.

Sr. Angela earned a bachelor's degree in education from Seton Hall University and taught in parish elementary schools in NY, NJ, and PA. After 25 years of teaching grades 2 thru 6, she achieved her life long dream of becoming a cook and for six years cooked and baked for her fellow nuns at Villa Madonna, the province infirmary and retirement home in Allamuchy, NJ. She also spent two days a week teaching at the Villa Madonna Nursery School.

Sr. Angela was also a school librarian, the provincial secretary, assisted at a shelter for homeless women, the administrator at Edna McLaughlin, a home for elderly women, the superior at St. Joseph's Convent, and an administrator at Villa Madonna from 1999 to 2004 when she suffered a stroke and was forced to retire.

She is survived by her sister, Elizabeth Charney of Sun City, FL, her brother and sister-in-law Bert & Janet Bodnar of Washington, NH & Harwinton, CT, twelve nephews and nieces, many grand & great grand nephews & nieces and her religious community, the Daughters of Divine Charity.

A Mass of Christian Burial will take place on Wednesday, February 1, 2017 at the St Joseph Hill Convent, located at 850 Hylan Blvd. Staten Island, New York 10305. Following the Mass, the burial will be in Resurrection Cemetery.

A gathering of Family and Friends will be from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the St Joseph Hill Convent on Tuesday, January 31, 2017.
