

Stephen Sasala

February 1, 1950 - October 17, 2021

Stephen Sasala, 71 of Staten Island, New York passed away on Sunday, October 17, 2021.

Born Wednesday, February 1, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Steve and Dolly Sasala.

Stephen's father passed when he was very young. Besides going to school he worked to support his mother and sister. At age 7, he got a job delivering prescriptions and spent his earnings on food for his family.

Steve worked many jobs, but his most important ones were the United States Postal Service in Brooklyn and New Jersey and receiving his Juris Doctor Degree and becoming an attorney. He worked as a public defender and in child abuse cases. His compassion was shown to every victim. Stephen was proud of all his accomplishments.

Stephen's greatest accomplishment was marrying his love in 1999. They then traveled to Russia and Kazakhstan to adopt their children. He was so proud of Stephen and Angela and bragged about them often.

Stephen was known as a trivia wiz and his family wanted him to get on jeopardy but he was too slow buzzing in. He could talk for hours about coins and stamps. Stephen cherished his friendships and is still close to his best friends from high school. He loved traveling and taking his family on many trips which included Hawaii, Georgia, Pennsylvania, California, Las Vegas and many other places.

Stephen was the devoted husband to Linda Muscio-Sasala. Loving father to Angela and Stephen II. Cherished brother to Sr. Andrea Sasala. Fond brother-in-law to Mario Introna, Bernadette Muscio Introna. Dear uncle to Mario II, Andrew, and Bernadette Introna.

Stephen loved the new addition to the family, Maggie the Chiweenie. She had a big bark but they were meant to be together.

He will always be loved and greatly missed.

A memorial Mass in Stephen's memory will be held on November 6th at 10:15 a.m. at St. Charles Church.
