“ Uncle Steve

*Will never forget your smile and laughter.
You've been called for a different journey now and you leave behind many loved ones in the knowledge that you truly touched all of their lives in one way or another.*

I'm not sure if anyone else in our extended family heard you when you would say 'No Dogs amongst Doctors' - it always made me smile and the way you said it. Never knew what it meant when you taught me it at the grand age of 9 but that was you all over! I smile as I remember those days with you fondly.

*From all the family here in the UK, we love and will miss you.
May God carry you across the rivers and oceans where you can continue your journey of making people laugh and where you can finally rest.*

Always in our hearts and minds.

Krishna Dede, San, Shant, Seet, Lal, Rude and all of our families.

“ To a dear brother who showed me what North America was about especially Worcester Mass. You opened my eyes to see a whole new world and it was amazing. Thank you for that. You have lived a great life with your family and now the Lord has called you home. I am so grateful to have been a part of your life even though we have had our ups and downs but that’s what siblings do. We are part of each other’s fabric and it will stay that way until eternity. I’m also grateful that God has taken you from all of your family as there will be no more sufferings but our hearts are breaking. I’m sorry that I could not see you before your passing but I know your spirit is soaring in the heavens with mummy and daddy and your other siblings. You have a blessed journey under God’s precious wings and may your soul always be at rest. Take care my brother and I am honoured to have shared this beautiful journey here on earth with you. Much love, peace and blessings to Shanti, Maureen, Aaron and family and Steven and family.

From Roberta (Babe) Tristian, Sharon, Alyssa, and Uncle Bud.
