“ Erban was the best. We met in our party years. One of the funniest people I've met. But genuine. Not perfect, genuine. I've read many of the posts on Facebook, which indicate he didn't changed. Thanks for everything Erban, the hospitality at your home, the laughter, your encouragement, everything. God Speed Brother.

“ To my Brother from a different Mother aka Audrey. Hey Man!!!! Fair Winds and Following Sea's. Love from a fellow Myrtle Ave Mafia Member and Navy Veteran Brother. Steven we all lived hard and we all lived fast and you always worried that you would be the last. You're right! You are the last of a kind! God can't make another copy of you in fear of breaking the mold. Love Vince

*I can't stop crying for Christine, his kids and all of us who grew up with him. He was aces! Always made everyone laugh in real life and social media. When we were kids we used to shovel down the street for money. He was such a fun loving warm-hearted man and anyone who knew him, knew he could make you smile on your saddest days! He would say the kindest stuff to anyone if they were going through tough times and then make you laugh about that shit! He would brighten up the room with his laugh!! Steve my brothers and I go way back to kids, He called me not too long ago and said "Bea I'm doing it, I'm going to retire to Florida, with mouse man" I will miss my texts, calls, him mooning me and doing old commercials with him! On that note it's forever "I LOVE YOU MAN" the old bud commercial! Stay in paradise Love
