“ Dear Family Members,
I had the privilege of meeting Susan when she worked at the Chancery of the Archdiocese. She was a lovely and helpful person who was determined to get to work despite a long commute and days when she was ill. I am sorry to hear of her death, and will include her name in our parish petitions for the deceased this Sunday. And I will offer a Mass for her soul and for your consolation in the near future.

Respectfully yours,
Msgr. William Belford
Pastor of St. Teresa Parish, SI

My heart breaks for Phil, Jill, Jenna and the girls. Susan loved her family dearly. She had such a wonderful spirit and brought joy wherever she went. I had the privilege of working with her in the Chancery. Her bright smile and kindness to others will be missed. Staten Island Sue is our new angel.

Our dearest friend to Tom and Gerri Smith.
Tom and Susan were carriage buddies born a day apart.
So loving, caring, kind, hardworking who loved her family beyond words.
You are now in heaven among the best.
Never to be forgotten.
Love and prayers,
Gerri and family.
