“ Aunt Teresa's smile could light up a room. She had some much love for her family. It did mattered if you were family or a stranger there was also room at the table and her house . I remember when I was 8 or 9 visiting Aunt Teresa and she made me the most fashionable outfit that summer. It did not take her that much time . I was the best dressed kid back home in Toronto. She would tell me stories about her growing up with my father Sammy . How he would give her money to buy fabrics to make clothes for herself and her sisters. Dad would come home from Rome on leave from His Carabinieri job. (Dad was cop in Italy). I going to miss her saying Hey Babe or love you Babe.
