“ I got to know Teddy because he was a good friend of my late husband Fred Dickson. He was so funny. My favorite story of his was of him trying to corral a horse with his car. It got loose and was running along on Richmond Avenue. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Teddy. We spent many weekends sitting in your backyard and having a few laughs. My best memory was when tweety got out and you stayed outside calling his name all night. We all knew he flew the coop and he was never coming back.
