“ Aunt Terry, I'm so glad that the last memories I have of you were at Stephanie and Kyle's wedding, where you were really enjoying yourself and being around family!! You are one of the most vivacious women I will have ever met in my life-- of this, I am certain! I love you (we ALL love you) with all my heart and I know I will see you sometime soon. Wish we could share more meals, laughter, and time together, but 95 years was an amazing run, especially since it was only the last few months that were really hard health-wise. Nine decades of spunk, sass, cheer, joy, and good times!!! The selfish side of me wishes that you could play with your great great nieces and nephews more on earth, and drink some more coffee and wine together, but we will have to wait for Heaven to have a grand old time with you again. Love you, Aunt Terry!
