“ We are so very sorry to hear of cousin Terry's passing. She was such a vibrant and happy spirit. I can't for the life of me figure out why no one in the Family let us know....

“ I'm so sorry to find out about Terry's passing. My husband and I first met Terry on a trip to China where we were all part of the same tour group. It was a beautiful trip and meeting Terry added to our enjoyment. We kept in touch and a few years later we all traveled to South Africa on another tour. Terry was kind, funny, and free spirited. She shared stories about her children and grandchildren with us and I know her family meant a great deal to her. I greatly admired her spark and adventurous spirit. My deepest condolences to her family, I know they will miss her dearly.
