Theresa was the proud owner for over 20 years of the well known bridal shop on New Dorp Lane, Theresa's Bridal. The shop was her passion. In addition to her successful business, she was the Matriarch of her family. She enjoyed hosting the holidays, cooking and above all spending time with her family. She always made sure everyone who came to visit left her home with a full meal. Trips to their vacation homes and the memories made there are ones her family will never forget.

Another title Theresa was honored to have was dearest friend. She and her girlfriends always made it a top priority to have their weekly girls night out get together. She truly loved the time she spent with them and the endless laughs that were had, mostly from her contagious laugh and her sense of humor that gave her the nickname "Cooky".
