“ I remember Mom and Mrs. Fogarty (she will always be Mrs. Fogarty to me) on summer days interrupting hanging laundry on the clothesline to chat for a few minutes over the fence between our yards; talking, as family responsibilities allowed, by phone; and, later, when we were older and wouldn't trouble them, visiting at our kitchen table. It is a gift to have memories of this sweet and enduring friendship.

“ Mrs. Fogarty to me. Terry to my Mom. They arrived as our next door neighbors in 1960. Rob has been my lifelong friend since that day. Terry was Mom's nearest and dearest friend and a second Mom to me. They stood by us, as best friends do, through the best of times and in times of trial. The Quinns send our best thoughts to all of the Fogartys. Terry was a bright shining presence for all of us.

“ Nanny - There are no words to describe what you meant to me, my family and our entire extended family. You were the most selfless, generous and kindest person I knew (I also have to add fashionista to this list- you knew every fashion trend before I did) You spoiled your grandchildren every opportunity you got. My fondest memories will be you watching us after school as children, Christmas at your house, shopping expeditions (I swear I was more tired than you after).
I hope you are enjoying tea and cookies in heaven. Love you.

“ We have very fond memories of our Aunt Therese. We all have Therese as our middle or confirmation name. We fondly remember holidays spent together as young children and taking the Staten Island ferry. Or as our mom, Rose would say Terry and the pirates are coming today.

“ Nanny, I will remember you as being such a wonderful listener and always very attuned to the person you're talking with. I cherish the times I would come to your house for lunch with my dad and we would share stories with you about what's going on in our lives... thank you for always listening and being a wonderful grandma.

“ Here's to you, Mom, a soft and strong woman who knew that magical perfect balance of always supporting us without ever interfering. (I'm still practicing, Mom:). Thank you and Dad for the wonderful family you've given all of us. Will miss you forever. Love, Bridget
