“ I am so deeply sorry of the passing of Tommy. We were friends since high school. There are no words to tell you how much he adored his family. His dogs were also such a big part of his life as well. Please know that Heaven has gained an angel who will watch over all of you. I will miss talking to him and reading and watching all his posts. Tommy my friend rest peacefully and I will see you when I get there. 💕💕

“ I’ve known Tommy since IS7 and so heartbroken to hear this. Always so full of life and such a genuine being. Evident in the path his chose to live his life helping others. Never heard someone so constantly express his love for his family and others and always sharing compassion for all. Rest In Peace, Tommy, with all your loved ones and brothers that have gone before you. I hope when I enter Heaven’s gates, I hope you are there to greet me as Aunt Joanie. You always got the biggest kick that Jim was a year older than me but my nephew. 💔

I was blessed to know Tommy because of my friendship with Angela. We met shortly after they were married. When I found him on FB I was thrilled. Tommy introduced me to all his favorite movies which became mine - 29th Street always reminded me of our weekends watching tapes on the VCR in the apartment in Brooklyn. You were an amazing husband and father and so caring of others. I wish we had all stayed in touch rather a few pop up comments on FB. May he rest in eternal peace and always be remembered for his love of family, friends and the FDNY.
