“ Deepest condolences for entire family. My father did work for Ali (Tommy's father) and also for Tommy and Ali for so many years. How is it possible that such a great people leaving us so early? This is very difficult to understand and accept. Tommy - not replaceable father and husband and great boss and very good person, kind with positive attitude and funny. That how I remember Tommy in my memories.

My father just told me that he had a dream last night. Tommy, Ali and him were having lunch on the construction site. Tommy ask my father if he did find the wire mesh they were talking about in the morning. My father said that he forgot, but he is going right now. So he left to look for that wire mesh in the basement. My father had trouble finding that thing but after some time he found it and is bringing it to the lunch place. He looks around but there is nobody there anymore..... .

We are very sad and greatly touched by Tommy's death. Again deepest condolences and we will pray for Tommy to rest in peace and for entire family for health and God blessing to go forward with life.

“ We met Tom, Angela and the kids through School at Our Lady Star of The Sea. Tom and my son grew up together through school. Tom was always a easy going, nice guy. Never a harsh word. You could tell he was just an all around good guy. Our prayers are with Angela, The kids and the entire Catanese Family at this time. R.I.P.
