“ Something made me think of Tom just now and I Googled only to find this very sad information. Joan - I'm so sorry to see this. We actually met many years ago - I worked @ MTV. Throughout the years and at various Cable TV Networks, I was always assigned to call on Tom when he was @ American Home Products. He was known as one of the toughest negotiators in the business. Smart, savvy and quite the character. Sorely missed and hard to believe. And as Tom would say: "Not for nothing!"

“ We will miss you Tom, my father-in law. Thank you for all the memories that will last a lifetime . For your grandchildren, you walked huge theme parks for hours in 95 degrees, waited on long, school ceremony lines in 30 degrees , trekked boardwalks & beaches well beyond your years & ability with no complaints. You shared your time , joy & love with all us. You made us laugh & amazed us with your wisdom. Thank you for your advice , stories & comments that enlightened us or made us laugh until we cried . Boat rides , vacations, family dinners , good times and tough times you were always there. These are the memories that we hold dear in our hearts forever . Rest In Peace , Papa Tom, until We meet again . Love Maryanne
