“ "Who's your favorite uncle," he used to ask me as a kid. Then, when I had my own children, I was able to introduce them to my favorite uncle, Uncle Tom. I love you and miss you and will forever be

You are so special to us all, we will hold you in our hearts forever. “ Uncle Tom...We can't express enough what an important part of our life you were. What we will remember the most is the way you joked around and made us all smile. We could always count on you to bring life to the party. The most memorable moments are all of the holidays we spent together and the laughs we shared. You will truly be missed and never forgotten. We love you...Frankie, Dawn and Amanda.

“ *My beloved husband,
Your physical presence may be gone from me, but I feel your love so strongly around me. Not even death can separate our souls from one another.*

Thank you for over 30 years of smiles and laughs, for loving me so intensely, for the honor of being your wife and Michael's stepmom, for teaching me to see the world through a photographer's eyes, for your absolutely incredible barbequed chicken cooked with such tenderness for your loved ones, for being such a wonderful Daddy to our fur babies and for forgiving me for my flaws.

We both believe that death has no sting because of our Lord and Savior. The joy of knowing that you are with Jesus helps to lessen the incredible grief that I must carry until the day that I am with you and Jesus in heaven.

I love you with all of my heart. Rest in peace my dearest friend and husband.

“ Tom, you were my only brother, the best I could have asked for.
Your generous spirit and never fading wit will live on forever in all of our hearts. You never complained or lost hope, in fact you gave us all strength and belief that you were okay, even though we knew you weren't. You are an inspiration to so many others who may be struggling with an illness, a true advocate for positivity. You always said, if I can make one person believe they will get better, then I keep repeating my story of survival. We didn't want to let you go, but we know you were being called to a better place and that there were many loved ones waiting patiently to hold you once again. We all love and miss you terribly and pray you found peace and all the licorice you can eat.....Love you so much and hated to see you struggle. Your Loving Sister and Brother, Erma and Cosimo, JR.

Tommy. Anthony & Myself, Marianne will always remember your jokes and sense of humor at every Birthday pool Party that Judy and Mike had for Kristen and Mikey. Yes you were the life of the party and as I told Judy today that whenever I saw you with Phyllis she looked at you ALWAYS with loving eyes. I'm sure she will be lost without you Tommy.
The world has lost yet another good man but I'm sure you're in a better place with all the family. Please give Stephanie a big hug for me. 💔💔💔
