“ Tommy was wonderful, warm, witty, funny and a well-loved man. I looked forward to seeing Tommy at all the family functions where he would, without fail, give me the best hugs ever. It became a thing for just the two of us that I will cherish forever. Rest in eternal peace, Tommy. You will be missed by everyone fortunate enough to have known you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Toms' sudden passing. Tom and I worked at Experian in the 90's. He was my boss and I was his Administrative Assistant. One Christmas Tom gifted me a beautiful winter poncho type coat. I was so surprised and flattered. I absolutely loved it and couldn't believe he knew my style. Although I haven't worn this in many years, I will make sure this winter I will and think of Tom when I do. Tom was a very nice, kind, gentle and thoughtful man. He will surely be missed. My condolences to Toms' wife and the Greene family.

“ Tom and I go back to the late 1970's when we were young co-workers in D&B's credit operations division, Tom in NYC, me in Connecticut. We met when Tom spent a month in our office to help us with a work backlog.

We stayed in touch over the years. Our paths crossed more frequently when we both transferred into Dun's Marketing Services Division, and our relationship grew further when Tom recruited me to Experian.

There are many memories. One that brings a particular smile to my face -- Tom and I eating at a wonderful Chinese restaurant in the city, Tom lamenting throughout the meal how his poor Irish palate couldn't handle the spicy food. There were many meetings and conferences that we attended together.

Most of all I will remember Tom as a warm and kind hearted man, someone who would drop everything to help a friend. He will be missed.

Condolences to the Greene family. ❤️
