

Thomas J. Mulvi

August 1, 1943 - June 3, 2025

Thomas J. Mulvi, of Brooklyn, NY, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, June 3, 2025, at the age of 81. Born on August 1, 1943, in the Red Hook neighborhood of Brooklyn, he was the beloved son of John Mulvihill and Edith (Russo) Mulvihill.

Thomas was a devoted husband to the late Eileen F. (Lyons) Mulvi, with whom he shared 52 wonderful years of marriage until her passing on January 14, 2022. Together, they built a life grounded in love, family, and faith creating a warm, welcoming home and a lifetime of cherished memories in the neighborhood they proudly called home.

A proud U.S. Navy veteran, Thomas served his country with honor aboard the USS Glacier from 1961 to 1964. He carried a deep sense of pride for his service and often spoke of those years with gratitude and reverence.

In his civilian life, Thomas found joy and peace through painting. His artwork reflected the beauty of everyday life and the depth of his passion for the world around him. He was also a natural storyteller fondly recalling tales of his Navy days and the old Brooklyn streets with humor, heart, and vivid detail.

Thomas will be remembered for his warmth, generosity, gentle spirit, and quick wit. He had a remarkable ability to make those around him feel seen, heard, and truly valued. His presence could light up a room, and his legacy lives on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know him.

He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all whose lives he touched.

A Funeral service will be at 11:30 AM on Friday at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc. located at 28 Eltingville Blvd Staten Island, New York 10312. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 9:00 AM to 11:30 AM on Friday, June 6, 2025, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.
