“ For over 20 years we would play cards with "the gang." Tom and I would invariably end up sitting together; And we were dubbed endearingly, as Mutt and Jeff! I stayed with Bea and Tom when visiting we would stay up watching Barney Miller and laughing till the wee hours of the morning. Tom's laugh was bold and infectious. I think that is what I will miss most. Just knowing Tom was wonderful and made everyone's life happier. You will be missed, but always loved!

So many happy memories as childhood friends. Playing street games, always laughing with Tom and Richie on the corner of Cedar and Arthur Avenue. I was blessed to have known him. May Tom rest in eternal peace. Annette Samaritano Talt
