

Thomas J. Smith, Sr.

November 17, 1953 - August 5, 2018

Thomas J. Smith Sr., 64, also known as Tom or Big Tom, passed away Sunday, August 05, 2018, at Staten Island Hospital surrounded by his loving family.

Tom is survived by his wife, Gerri, of 41 years. They moved from Brooklyn to Staten Island in 1980, where they raised their two children Thomas Jr. and Michael. Tom worked for Brooklyn Union Gas for 34 years until he retired from the company in 2006. Since then, he has been working for PSE&G as a Supervising Training Specialist.

He was the true definition of a family man. One of his passions was watching and coaching his sons in both baseball and soccer. He was an avid Mets fan and enjoyed hunting. He was an active member of both Holy Child and St. Clare Parishes. Tom was loved by everyone he met. Besides being a true family man, Tom was also known for having a great sense of humor, whose laugh was contagious. He was truly greater than life.

Tom is survived by his wife Gerri, his sons Thomas (Carmen) and Michael (Christine), his granddaughter Sofia Hope and many family members and friends.

A gathering of family and friends will take place from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Tuesday, August 7, 2018, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York. A Mass of Christian Burial will take place at 9:45 am on Wednesday, St. Clare's Church. Interment to follow at Resurrection Cemetery.

Donations in Tom's Memory can be made to the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com

“ Dear Gerri,

My heartfelt condolences to you, your family, and your friends, on Tom's passing.

I very much enjoyed sitting with you and Tom at Joey's birthday party. I felt like I had known you and him for years, because both of you were so easy to talk to. Tom shared with me photos of your beautiful family, and his face absolutely lit up over your and his precious granddaughter, Sophia Grace! He also shared with me the joy of the father-son bonding over a game of baseball. Tom and I also had fun looking at his photos and videos of Staten Island's abundant wildlife, especially the deer. With Tom's easy and friendly demeanor, it is obvious that he must have made many, many friends over the course of his life. For reasons we do not fully understand, Tom's time on this earth was tragically short, but by the Grace of God, he will one day be re-united with his loved ones in Heaven. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let Perpetual Light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

May God heal your broken heart with happy memories of your sweet husband.

*Love,
Regina*

“ Dear Gerri, Tommy, Michael and Family,
Tom was a wonderful man who always greeted everyone with a smile. Whenever we met him, we would exchange stories about family and you could see him light up when he spoke of his own beautiful family. Tom was a blessing to all of us who knew him. He will truly be missed. May he rest in peace in the Lord's loving arms.

“ From Linda and Andrea Kneeley

We share Fran's sentiment, we have lost a wonderful neighbor. Richie and Tom talked often about BUG. Richie's dad worked there for 45 years and Tom was always gracious to listen to Richie's stories.

Gerri, we will always remember your kindness to us during our loss. Please know we are praying for you and your boys. God bless you.
