“❤️ I'll love you forever, I'll miss you always!
Beautiful, sassy, thoughtful, generous beyond measure, intelligent, brutally honest, mouth of a sailor (wonder where you got that from!), responsible, caring, witty, supportive, appreciative, hysterical, an early bird, queen of accessories, resilient, strong, respectful, charming, one in a million.

Thank you for being the sister I never had. Your memory... the laughter, the tears, more laughter, song lyrics, the endless cups of coffee, the advice, vacations, concerts, life lessons... will remain a treasure to me. You have always been a pillar of strength, a beacon of hope, a class act, lightning in a bottle.

I've learned so much from you, except how to live life with you. I listen to your voicemail everyday and love getting signs from Heaven. I am thankful that you are resting in peace with Tessie and Bob, and that is comforting. I promise to always be there for Robbie, your buddy.

Tressa Una Violetto, a beautiful life gone too soon. Love you, my princess bestie ☐ I wish I could write more, or even find the words to truly express my sorrow, but truth is, there are no words. Just heartache. Fly with the angels, until we meet again.

“ My sweet Tressa! You easily became one of my favorite patients from day one. Whether she was my patient for the day or i was just stopping in to say hi, Despite all she had going on she had the biggest smile when she saw me come in the room. She never missed an opportunity to tell me i looked beautiful or that she felt safe with me. But honestly, she gave me joy each and every shift. She ALWAYS made me laugh and smile with her. Her spunk and courage through all obstacles is something i will never forget. It was a privilege and an honor to care for her. May you rest peacefully my tressy girl. Thank you for being the light on dark days for the nurses at SIUH.
