“ Tito Val was a big part of our childhood. He helped with renovations in our house, made me a giant hutch for my rabbit, helped me with a science project. He could make anything! We remembered visits to his house to see Tita Lou and their dog, Sugar.

Uncle Val was my dad best friend. They served in the Coast Guard together. There was Tom and Jerry and Val. Tom was my father. He often said Uncle Val would give him the shirt off his back, that's what kind of person he was. Our family has fond memories of going to Uncle Val and Aunt Lourdes' to visit. My mom and dad found Sugar, their beloved dog for them. We would always love coming over to play with Sugar as children. Thanks Uncle Val for always being such a generous and kind spirit. We will miss you.
