“ One of my fondest memories as a child was with my Aunt Ronnie. We vacationed in New York often and always stayed with Aunt Ronnie and Uncle Morgan. On one particular trip I was able to bring a friend and Aunt Ronnie had planned a very special day for two 14 year old girls. We put on our Sunday best, took the ferry over to the city and went to Radio City Music Hall to see the Rockets, we were two completely Awe struck Michigan girls! But, the day did not end there, Aunt Ronnie took us to Mama Leones for lunch, that was another first experience and a everlasting memory. Aunt Ronnie always made everyone feel special, welcomed, and always offering you something to eat! I will never forget her smile, laugh, kindness, and her love for her family. God Bless and rest in peace Aunt Ronnie, I love you.
