

Vincent Rocco Agostino

December 18, 1951 - March 16, 2024

Vincent Rocco Agostino, age 72, of Boynton Beach, Florida, passed away at home on Saturday, March 16, 2024.

Vincent was born in Brooklyn, NY, moved to Staten Island at age 12 and graduated from New Dorp High School in Staten Island, NY.

Vincent's first job out of high school was working in the department of floor operations on the New York Stock Exchange. After that, he worked for UPS for five years where he met his wife, Sue. Shortly thereafter, following in his father's footsteps, Vincent began working for his family business, Agostino Tool & Die. Vincent remained in the tool and die industry until he retired in 2015. Through his career, Vincent worked for Keptel/Antec in Tinton Falls, NJ, and Northrop Grumman in St. Augustine, FL. He was a jack of all trades and owned many side businesses throughout the years including, Lisa Professional Dry Cleaners, Response Tool and Die, and Clean Coat Seal Coating. In retirement, he enjoyed keeping busy by working as a golf attendant at the Boynton Beach Links Golf Course and served as a director on his neighborhood HOA board.

Vincent was loving, caring, and devoted to his family. He was quick witted and always appreciated a good prank. He loved sports and played football, hockey, and golf throughout his life. He was an avid New York Rangers and

New York Mets fan. Trips to the racetrack were also one of his favorite pastimes. He was quite the green thumb, mastering his vegetable garden and always finding work to do outside. His kids dubbed him "the real-life Clark Griswold" based on many fun-filled family vacations, most recently to Alaska and Italy. He was passionate about cooking (pizza, eggplant parmesan, and baked clams were his specialty).

Vincent married Sue, his wife of 47 years, on August 28, 1976. They lived in Staten Island, NY, Brick, NJ, Palm Coast, FL and finally residing in Boynton Beach, FL. Vincent is survived by his wife, three daughters, Lisa Agostino (Tim), Laura Salatino (Damian), and Rose Agostino (Joe), two grandsons, Vincent and Arthur Salatino, and step-granddaughter, Riley McGuire. He is also survived by his sister, Maria DeMartino (Matt), brother Ronald, and many brother and sister in-laws, nieces, and nephews. Vincent is predeceased by his parents, Joseph and Mary Agostino.
