Vinnie was such a special man. He would show up at our home with one of his specialty dinners. His smile was infectious and he giggled when he had some juicy news to tell. My husband Dennis spent many nights playing cards with VJ as he was so lovingly called. He will certainly be missed. Heaven has welcomed another saint. Rest In Peace dear friend.

“ I know my dad is smiling in heaven as he is reunited with his best friend VJ.

My best memories growing up were of VJ visiting every Sunday morning. If we weren't awake yet, he would just let himself in and get the coffee started! He and my dad would sit talking for hours. Just the best friendship.

Of course, I also loved going to the Amato house to see Jeanine and her sisters. It was always fun and VJ and Carol made everyone feel welcome. Such a special family..

My heart goes out to the whole Amato family. VJ was the best and will never be forgotten.
