

Vincent A. Capitano

September 11, 1980 - March 14, 2021

Vincent A. Capitano, 40, of New Dorp passed away on Sunday March 14, 2021 at home with his loving family.

Born September 11th 1980, in Staten Island, Vincent was the beloved son of late John and Connie Donlin Capitano.

Vincent was a lifelong Staten Islander, attending and graduating from Tottenville High School in 2000. After high school Vincent received a Certification in commercial cooking and catering from the New York Food and Hotel Management School.

Vincent worked as a cook for a Very Special Place, a non-for-profit organization that helps provide for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. He also worked as a para-transit driver. Vincent enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. Vincent was artistic and enjoyed drawing and creating art as well as playing the guitar. He also enjoyed philosophical and religious readings.

Vincent was known for the smile he always had on his face. He had a love for having conversations and spending time with company. Vincent was also very knowledgeable and was full of worldly facts. While he enjoyed having conversations, he was filled with even more questions than could ever be answered. We hope he has found his answers to everything he pondered.

Vincent was the beloved brother of John and his wife Jessica. Cherished uncle to JJ and Cara.

A Memorial Mass will be held at 10:15 AM on Friday at St Charles Church located at 200 Penn Ave Staten Island, New York 10306.
